Research of "STERN" in connection with the Pope assassination
Local writing from 11.29.1984 - II/14/131/84-kü-sch

A Bulgarian security agency sends their thanks for the information provided to them, which was for their operative interests. They are attempting to solidify this information but have acquired no additional leads.

In this context, the Bulgarian security agency has turned to the MfS with the request that it be shared whether new information regarding the Turkish arms dealer, who turned to the editors of the "STERN," are available. It would be of interest for the Bulgarian security agency what information it had access to and what data it wanted to make available to the "STERN" as well as what real possibilities exist for their publication.

Additionally, it would be of interest for the security agency of the PRB whether
