'Pakistan Proliferation Problem,' US Embassy United Kingdom Cable 19322 to Department of State

Citation:

"'Pakistan Proliferation Problem,' US Embassy United Kingdom Cable 19322 to Department of State", November 24, 1978, Wilson Center Digital Archive, Mandatory Declassification Review request. Obtained and contributed by William Burr and included in NPIHP Research Update #3. <https://digitalarchive.umd.edu/document/112912>

Summary:

Britain agrees with U.S. thinking on the matter of State Department cable 292469, except on its approach to the Soviet Union. Britain decided not to approach the Soviets because they were unsure whether Moscow's "commitment to nonproliferation outweighs their special political interests vis-à-vis Pakistan."
