Note from the Conversation with the Politburo Member of the CC CPS, Minster of Foreign Affairs of the USSR, Comrade Andrei Gromyko □ On instructions of the First Secretary of the CC PUWP, Comrade Edward Gierek, I was in Moscow on September 8, 1978...The conversation lasted for almost two hours. On the initiative of Soviet comrades, the Polish ambassador in Moscow , K. Olszewski and Soviet ambassador to Poland Comrade B. Aristov, participated in the meeting.[...]5. China.
Comrade Gromyko expressed his high admiration for Comrade E. Gierek's strong stance in condemning the Chinese leadership's policies. "You correctly assess and you correctly plan," Comrade Gromyko said after I presented the content of the First Secretary's statements on this issue and our further intentions.[...]
