

July 1, 1950
Conversation between Indian Ambassador Kavalam
Madhava Panikkar and Deputy Foreign Minister
Zhang Hanfu

Citation:

"Conversation between Indian Ambassador Kavalam Madhava Panikkar and Deputy Foreign Minister Zhang Hanfu", July 1, 1950, Wilson Center Digital Archive, PRC FMA 105-00009-01, 1-3. <https://digitalarchive.umd.edu/document/114912>

Summary:

Zhang Hanfu and K.M. Panikkar discuss the role of the United Nations in ending the conflict in Korea.

Credits:

This document was made possible with support from Leon Levy Foundation

Original Language:

Chinese

Contents:

Translation - English

[...]

[Handwritten] Of course China is willing to join the United Nations but [China] is unwilling to mix this with the issue of Korea. The Soviet side should be informed of this and their views should be consulted.

Zhou Enlai. 1 July [1950]

[...]

Zhang [Hanfu]: Today afternoon I heard that the United States has already transported a large group of soldiers from Japan to the Southern part of Korea by air. This is a continuation and expansion of direct American military intervention in the Korean War.

Indian Ambassador: What you said is correct, if both China and the Soviet Union can attend the [UN] security council then the Korean issue can be localized and receive peaceful resolution.

[...]