29 June 1954

Mr. Phra B. Nides
c/o The National Assembly
Bangkok, Thailand

Dear Mr. Nides:

I appreciate your thoughtful letter of 19 June 1954. It gives me pleasure to know that you departed from this country satisfied with what our common efforts have brought out of the Conference.

The willingness to shape mere hope and aspiration into solid reality, displayed in the historic event at Chinhae, will stand as an inspiring lodestar over our united battle front and lead us to a place where we the Asian Peoples can enjoy the tranquil air of peace that is free from aggressor's threat.

I am very happy to pay my heartfelt tributes to you for what you have done at Chinhae, and wish you and your people the best of success in our common struggle in the months to come.

Sincerely,

Syngman Rhee
President
Republic of Korea

P. S. Please give my kind regards to Mr. B. Chuang
