

February 9, 1950

Outgoing Telegram No. 2429, Vyshinsky to Shtykov

Citation:

"Outgoing Telegram No. 2429, Vyshinsky to Shtykov", February 9, 1950, Wilson Center Digital Archive, RGASPI, f. 558, op. 11, d. 346, ll. 0076. Contributed by Sergey Radchenko and translated by Gary Goldberg.
<https://digitalarchive.umd.edu/document/119388>

Summary:

Vyshinsky relays that all of the things that Kim Il Sung requested are allowed.

Credits:

This document was made possible with support from MacArthur Foundation

Original Language:

Russian

Contents:

Translation - English

USSR MFA
form N° 17
10th department

TOP SECRET

Outgoing N° 2429
received at 1935 9 February 1950
sent out at 2050 9 February 1950
Spets N° 84

Cable

to PYONGYANG
to THE SOVIET AMBASSADOR
Copy N° 1

SPECIAL
PRIORITY

93.94. Visit Kim Il Sung and inform him of the following:

First. The CC decision about issuing a loan can be adopted. Representatives with samples of the bonds can be sent to Moscow:

Second. They can begin forming an additional three divisions.

Third. A request can be made about the use of the credit for 1950 which was issued for 1951.

Fourth. Concerning point 4 of the agenda you can say that there are no objections.

Fifth. A request can be sent to the Soviet Government about sending a group of textile industry workers to the USSR.

At the direction of the authorities [instantsiya]

Confirm receipt.

Telegraph when this has been done.

VYSHINSKY

five copies. nb
9 February 1950
copies
Authenticated: [illegible signature]
1. to Cde. Stalin
2. to Cde. Molotov
3. to Cde. Vyshinsky

4. 10th department

5. copy

[handwritten: N 1341/sh]