Beirut, Jul 29, 1949

Number 169/ I met yesterday with Mr. Lazar Lilich, who informed me that Ismail Haji Bikovich, his former assistant, will not be returning to Beirut. It's expected that he will be appointing someone else in his position. I also found out from him that Said Abdulla Kamala, the representative for the Yugoslav Shipping Company will be traveling in the first ten days of August, to Belgrade following orders from the Yugoslav government to him so he can submit his report on the former minister, Victor Vidmar, who has joined the Cominform and Ismail Haji Bikovich.

I also learned from the minister that a large number of Yugoslav refugees to Syria and Lebanon are starting to get close to him to get a pardon after they had shown an interest in cooperating with Tito. And after he made contact with his government on this matter, he received instructions to proceed with cooperating with them. However, he refuses to cooperate with those who work for the Croat cause against Yugoslavia's unity.

I also met with Said Abdulla Kamala and asked him about what's behind what the minister had said about his trip to Yugoslavia. He confirmed to me that this information, adding that Yugoslavia is getting over ten thousand British pounds and that this will be the focus of his visit.
