Questions concerning the Pre-election Campaign in North Korea

Citation:

"Questions concerning the Pre-election Campaign in North Korea", November 14, 1946, Wilson Center Digital Archive, Archives of the General Staff of the USSR, op. 480s, no. 35, st. 5, p. 2, pa. 21, k. 35 <https://digitalarchive.umd.edu/document/122456>

Summary:

This document discusses the Korean elections to the People's Committee, posing and answering a specific set of questions. The first questions concerns the idea that estate owners would attempt to divert peasants from participating in the elections since they were unhappy with the land reforms. Other questions talks about an Yezd, where the students and teachers printed a list of people who had expressed dissatisfaction towards the People's Committee.
