Dear General White:

I want to thank you for the cordial message which you sent on behalf of the officers and men of Army Forces, Far East, and Eighth Army. Your kind words are sincerely appreciated.

The friendship and confidence which we hold in the American people encourage us to believe that our hopes and aspirations will yet be realized, and we are deeply grateful to be allied with your great country.

With warm regards and every good wish,

Sincerely,

General I. D. White, USA
