Dear General Ferenbaugh:

The President has asked if you would kindly transmit the following message to the Secretary of the Army:

Dear Mr. Stevens:

I am deeply sorry that the weather prevented your coming to Chinhae. Had I known the weather would be unfavorable I would have come back to Seoul in order to see you.

With my sincere thanks and appreciation for your visit, and with all good wishes for a safe and pleasant journey home, I am

Sincerely,

/s/ Syngman Rhee

Very truly yours,

Secretary to the President
