The people of Kanghwa are proud of their new assembly hall built as an AFAK project. As a place for holding industrial expositions and cultural and educational meetings, it will benefit the populace of the entire Gun (district). The hall is in the 1st Marine Division area and was sponsored by the Kimpo Provisional Regiment, 1st Marine Division.

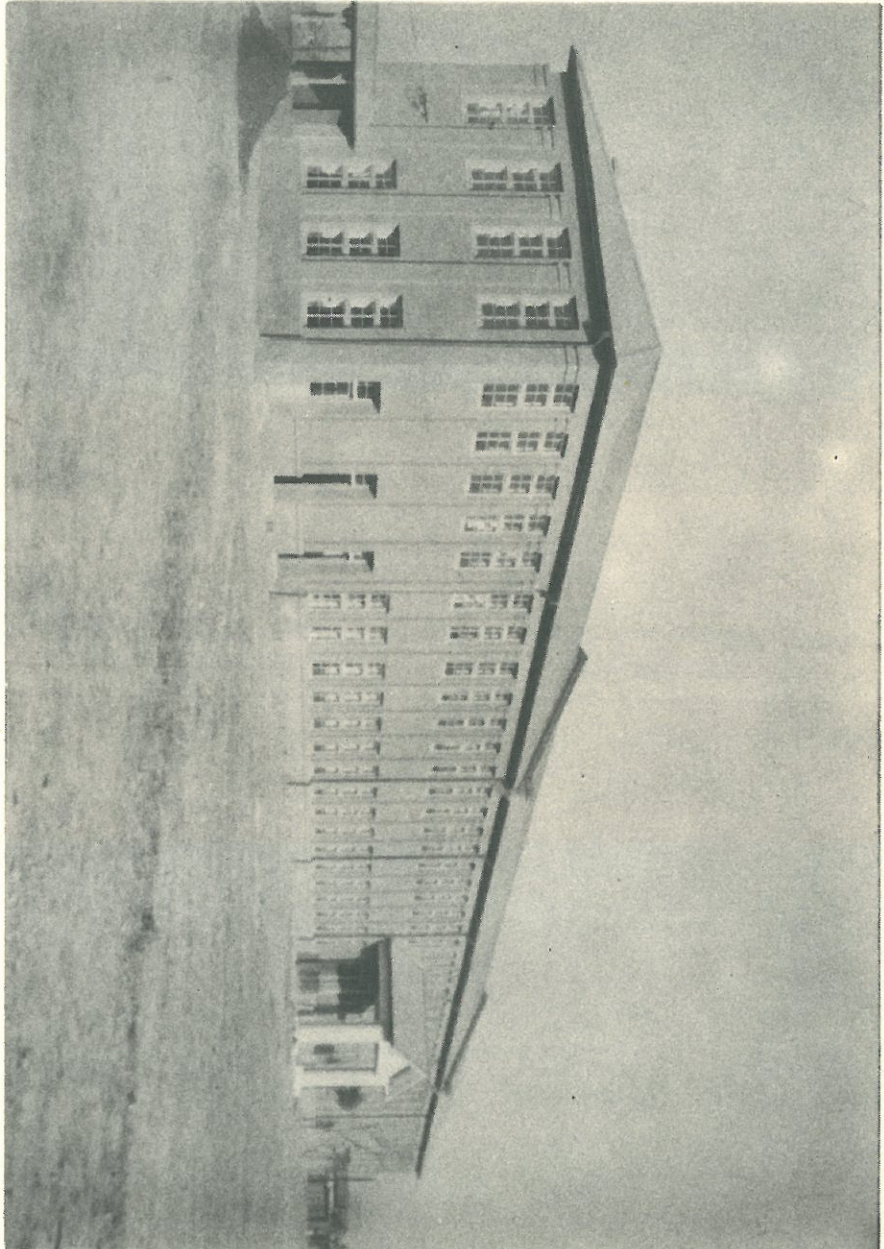

The farmers of Wollong Myon will benefit greatly from their recently completed grain warehouse, pictured above. Since completion, the warehouse has provided improved storage and protection for the grain which is their basic commodity. This AFAK project was sponsored by 2d Battalion, 7th Marine Regiment.

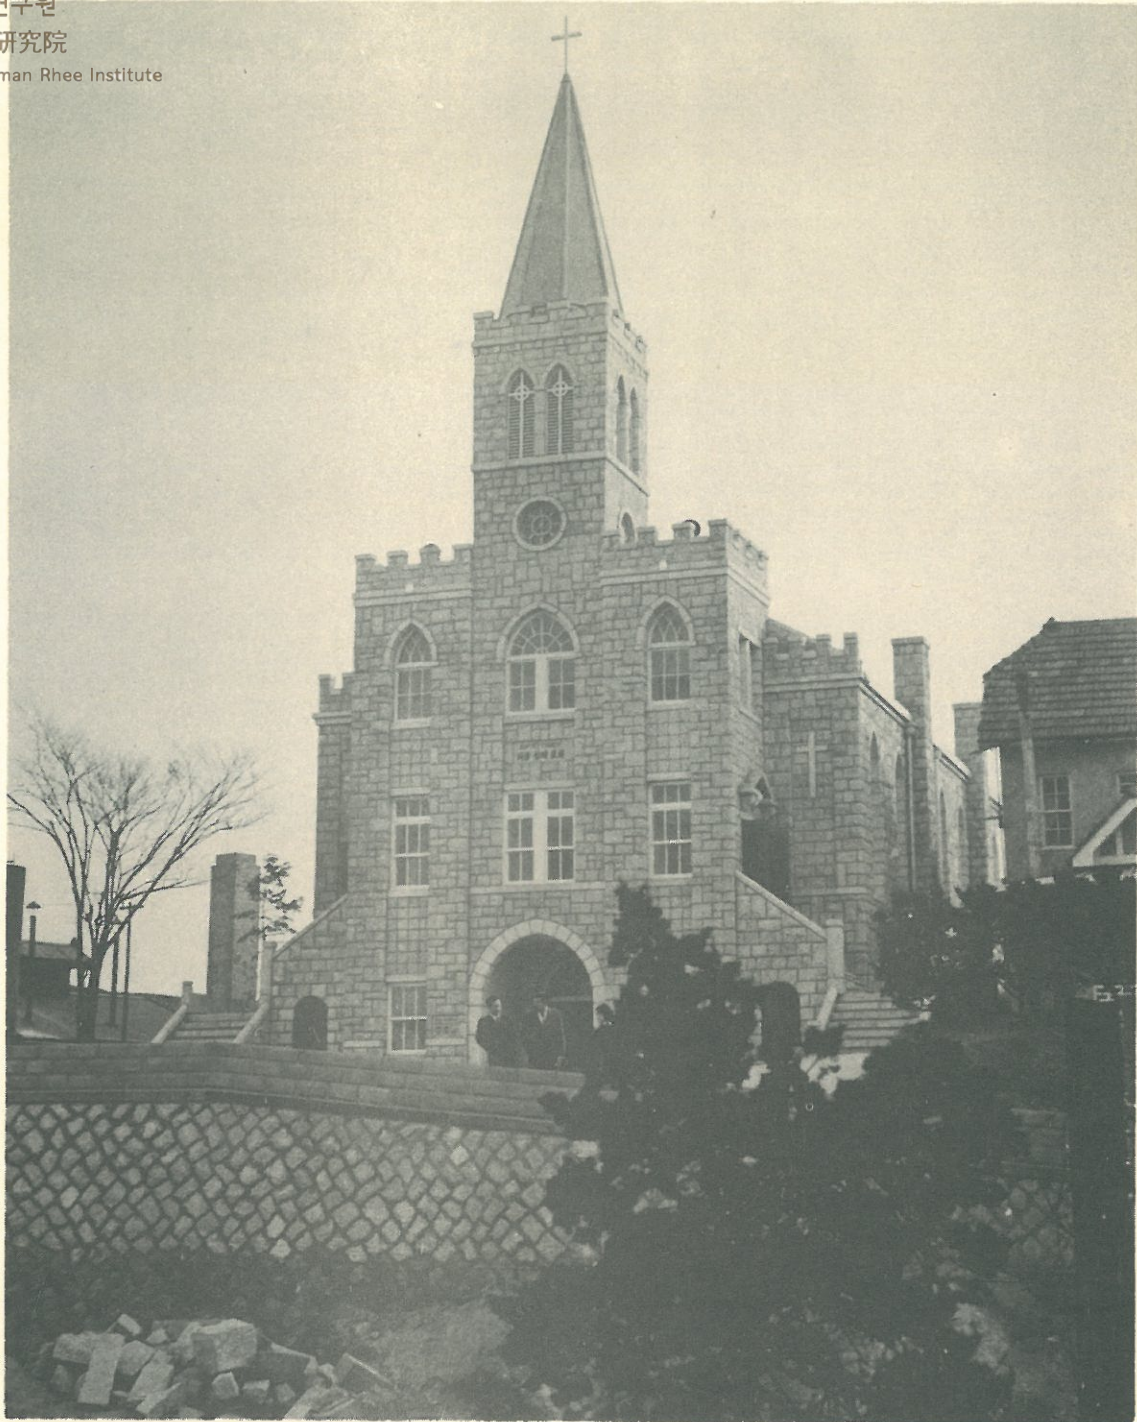

The doors of the Bu Pyung Primary School are now open to the children of Il Dong Inchon and surrounding communities. The school is an AFAK project and was sponsored by the 6th Medical Group. It will help lighten the burden of the tremendously overcrowded educational facilities in Il Dong Inchon area.

The classic lines and sturdy construction of the Seoul Baptist Church will long stand as an example of mutual American and Korean endeavor. To the $17,060 in construction materials and assistance supplied by AFAK, the members of the church added $38,750 in locally procured materials and labor to build this $56,000 church. This monument to the friendship of two freedom loving peoples was sponsored by the 60th Ordnance Group.
