Dear Major Ungerleider:

Mr. Edward C. Dugan has been employed to advise the Office of General Affairs of the Government of the Republic of Korea on matters relating to hotel management. Mr. Dugan arrived in Korea on June 26, 1954, and is living at the Bando Hotel in Seoul.

The Government would like to ask if arrangements could be made to grant Mr. Dugan the privilege of using the services of the postal system and the post exchange of the United States Army.

Any such courtesies which are extended to Mr. Dugan during the period of his employment in Korea will be very much appreciated.

Very sincerely yours,

Yu, Chang Jun
