LEGATION OF THE REPUBLIC OF KOREA
MANILA, PHILIPPINES

March 19, 1956

Dear Madame Rhee:

I am deeply appreciative of your thoughtfulness in sending me a brass tea pot which will be very useful at the coffee hour the women folks give in the morning. The morning hour is exclusively for the women folks who get together for social chats and exchange of pleasantries.

Since our return, I have been very busy in looking after the entertainment of the Korean delegates as well as the formal dinner we gave for the Chinese Ambassador and Mrs. Chen Chih-mai. We are all glad to be back home after a two-week visit to Korea where we got more or less defrosted. Now, the weather is getting very warm and the heat with high humidity is on the rise.

Thanking you again for the beautiful tea pot with inscription on it.

With warm aloha and best wishes,

Yours sincerely,

Louisa Y. Kim
