~~employee~~ born October 27, 1921 Budapest, bearer Austrian passport IV 87245 PA/52 Vienna issued December 23, 1952 expires December 22, 1957. Tormay carries Manchester Guardian press card issued to Eric Gedye RFE Vienna Chief with letter in German stating Gedye gave Tormay permission string for Guardian in ^{Gedye's} ~~place~~ place.

Third man, according RFE, JERZY GUSTAW PONIKIEWSKI, born Sept 19, 1906 at Przewodowo, Poland. He is reported to have British travel document which included US reentry permit 3266 issued New York Sept 2, 1953 and believed renewed subsequently.

In furnishing British and Austrian missions copy of note and supplementary info, Embassy Moscow may indicate US would welcome any parallel actions they may consider appropriate. Amembassy London and Vienna may in their discretion inform respective foreign ministries of action envisaged. Dept has notified British and Austrian Embassies in Washington of foregoing.

FYI Dept is endeavoring to avoid publicity as long as possible in hopes that such action may improve chances Soviets will release Hier before it becomes prestige matter. It is highly unlikely, however, publicity can be avoided long. Dept. has no evidence Hier obtained passport validation travel Hungary. Hier is employee Radio Free Europe as are Tormay and Ponikiewski.
