to CDE. STALIN.

In accordance with your instructions I submit a draft decree of the USSR Council of People's Commissars [SNK] for approval by which the People's Commissariat of Medium Machine Building is obligated to produce all trucks with wooden cabs and bodies.

The shift to a wooden cab instead of an all-metal [one] provides the following savings in metal:

for the GAZ-51 truck - 100 kg.
for the ZIS-150 truck - 148 kg.

In the process the savings of metal is due to sheet metal, which is more in short supply.

In calculating the production of new trucks for the 1946 production program the savings in metal will amount to 15,000 tons for the entire year.

This draft decree was drawn up with the participation of Cde. Akopov and examined in the Operations Bureau of the SNK.
